Volunteers World Wide

A large, dense crowd of young children, likely of Southeast Asian descent, are smiling and making peace signs with their hands. They are wearing white school uniforms with red ties. The image is bright and cheerful, with many hands raised in the foreground.

An aerial photograph of San Francisco, California, featuring the Transamerica Pyramid and other skyscrapers in the background, and a dense residential area in the foreground. A semi-transparent white rectangular box is centered over the image, containing a diagram and text. The diagram consists of a central horizontal line with two vertical lines extending upwards from its center to a curved line above the word 'Adventist'. From the ends of the central horizontal line, two vertical lines extend downwards to two separate curved lines, one above 'Global Mission' and one above 'Mission Awareness'.

12) Why Can't We Catalogue Videos Like the Seventh-Day Adventists?

Gotta love the Seventh-Day Adventists and their work of staging missions videos. Check 'em out at . . .

<https://am.adventistmission.org/videos>

Why is it that they can churn out near-weekly videos and other churches, orgs and agencies seem to require such a long turn-around?
