And then the world was spread out before me and I saw darkness like the pall of death. What did it mean? I could see know light. Then I saw a little glimmer of light and then another, and these lights increased and grew brighter, and multiplied and grew stronger and stronger until they were the light of the world. These were the believers in Jesus Christ.”

A woman, likely from a tribal community, is shown from the waist up. She is wearing a vibrant blue and pink patterned sari with a blue headscarf. She has a nose ring and is wearing multiple red bangles on both wrists. She is holding a small plant in her hands. The background is a blurred field of tall grass.

William A. Spicer, 1930 General Conference Session

“We didn’t have much of an idea of going to the heathen. We didn’t expect to go in any really strong way. We never expected to go to the Catholic countries. We thought: We will get a few along the edges, and the Lord will come; but the Lord all the time had in mind this purpose, of calling the heathen, of calling through all the Catholic lands for His people to come.”

- Christ commissioned His disciples to proclaim a faith and worship that would have in it nothing of caste or country, a faith that would be adapted to all peoples, all nations, all classes

Pacific, 1898

The education of the native youth for missionaries has been the aim of all successful missionary efforts in all denominations. The success of missions in the South Seas, and perhaps in all parts of the world, has been largely due to the fact that native missionaries have carried the tidings of a new religion to their own people.

The Butterfly Effect

July, 1849. First Issue of Present Truth

THE PRESENT TRUTH.
PUBLISHED SEMI-MONTHLY—BY JAMES WHITE.
MIDDLETOWN, CONN. JULY, 1849. No. 1.
"The most of the world is with those that are here, and he will show them his covenant."—Ps. xix. 10.

"Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the PRESENT TRUTH." 2 PEs. i. 18.

It is through the truth that souls are sanctified, and made ready to enter the ever-lasting kingdom. Obedience to the truth will kill us in this world, but we may be made alive, by faith in Jesus. "Sanctify them through thy truth; thy word is truth." John xvi. 17. This was the prayer of Jesus. "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth." 3 John ix.

Reason, darkness and fetters the mind, but the truth brings with it freedom, and gives light and life. True charity, or LOVE, "rejoiceth in the truth." 1 Cor. xiii. 8.

"The law is the truth." Ps. cxix. 142.

David describing the day of slaughter, when the pestilence shall walk in darkness, and destruction waste at noon-day, as they, "a diamond shall fall at thy side, and the diamond at thy right hand," says—

"He shall come down with his brethren, and under his wings shall thou rest; his TRUTH shall be thy SHIELD and BUCKLER." Ps. xvi. 4.

The storm is coming. War, famine and pestilence are already in the field of slaughter. Now is the time, the only time to seek a shelter in the truth of the living God.

In Peter's time there was present truth, or truth applicable to that present time. The Church have ever had a present truth. The present truth now, is that which shows present duty, and the right position for us who are about to witness the time of trouble, such as never was. Present truth must be oft repeated, even to them who are established in it. This was useful in the Apostles day, and it certainly is no less important for us, who are living just before the close of time.

For months I have felt burdened with the duty of writing, and publishing the present truth for the distressed flesh; but the way has not been opened for me to commence the work until now. I tremble at the word of the Lord, and the importance of this time. What is done to spread the truth must be done quickly. The four Angels are holding the angry nations in shackles a few days, until the saints are sealed; then the nations will rush, like the rushing of many waters. Then it will be too late to spread before precious souls, the present saving, living truths of the Holy Bible. My spirit is downcast after the untimely removal. May God help them to receive the truth, and be established in it. May they haste to take shelter beneath the "wing of Almighty God," in my prayer.

The Weekly Sabbath Instituted at Creation, and not at Sinai.

"And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And thus blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made." Gen. ii. 2, 3.

Here God instituted the weekly rest or Sabbath. It was the seventh day. He BLESSED and SANCTIFIED that day of the week, and no other; therefore the seventh day, and no other day of the week is holy, sanctified time.

God has given the reason why he blessed and sanctified the seventh day. "Because that in it he had rested from all his work which God had created, and made." He rested, and set the example for man. He blessed and set apart the seventh day for man to rest from his labor, and follow the example of his Creator. The Lord of the Sabbath said, Mark ii. 27: "The Sabbath was made for man." Not for the Jew only, but for MAN, in its broadest sense; meaning all mankind. The word man in this text, means the same as it does in the following texts. "Man that is born of a woman is of few days and full of trouble." Job xiv. 1. "Man both down and reach out, till the heavens be no more." Job xiv. 22.

No one will say that man here means
