“The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved”

(Jeremiah 8:20)

(Ellen G. White, Maranatha, The Lord is Coming, p. 39.1).

“I appeal to the members of our churches not to disregard the fulfilling of the signs of the times, which say so plainly that the end is near. O, how many who have not cared for the salvation of their souls will soon make the bitter lamentation, “The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved!”

(Ellen G. White, Maranatha, The Lord is Coming, p. 39.2).

“From ‘every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people’ there will be some who will gladly respond to the message, ‘Fear God, and give glory to Him for the hour of His judgment is come.’ They will turn from every idol that binds them to earth, and will ‘worship Him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.’”

They will free themselves from every entanglement and will stand before the world as monuments of God’s mercy. Obedient to the divine requirements, they will be recognized by angels and by men as those that have kept “the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus”

(Revelation 14:6,7,12). (Ellen G. White, Prophets and Kings, p. 299.3).

“In a special sense Seventh-day Adventists have been set in the world as watchmen and light bearers. To them has been entrusted the last warning for a perishing world. On them is shining wonderful light from the word of God. They have been given a work of the most solemn import -the proclamation of the first, second, and third angel’s messages. There is no other work of so great importance. They are to allow nothing else to absorb their attention”

(Ellen G. White, Testimonies to the Church, vol.9, p.19.1).

A powerful proclamation for the end times

For Ellen G. White and the Adventist pioneers, the teachings connected to the angels of Revelation 14 did much more than satisfy their curiosity. For Bible students who learned to trace God's steps through history and witnessed the fulfillment of prophecy in their days, the three angels' messages became a crucial guide in their journey through anticipation, the disappointment of 1844, and deeper discovery.

After a historical and theological introduction to the topic, this book's seven chapters speak about the centrality of the gospel, the Creator God, the pre-Advent judgment, the fall of Babylon, and the image of the beast. We are also assured of the immense power of God's end-time proclamation preceding the glorious appearing of our Lord.

ELLEN G. WHITE is the author of more than 130 books, many of which have been compiled and published posthumously from her extensive manuscript file. She is the world's most translated woman author, her works appearing in more than 150 languages. Inspired by God, she exalted Jesus and continually pointed to the Holy Scriptures as the basis for faith.
