- ▶ To share his faith he traveled to Amoy (Xiamen) to learn the language. Here he befriended Nga Pit Keh (Zigying Guo) who was the principal of the school. They had a deep discussion that led to his conversion.
- ▶ They were afterward baptized and returned to his home country to share his faith. Pastor Keh would become the first indigenous Adventist minister in China.

IS IT THE "PHŒBE CHAPMAN"?

THE following significant dispatch from San Francisco is now appearing in Eastern papers :—

"SAN FRANCISCO, JAN. 29. —Private advices from Tahiti, in the Society Islands, report that wreckage has been discovered, supposed to be from the missionary schooner "Phœbe Chapman," which left Honolulu over two years ago in charge of Elder J. H. Cudney, of Nebraska, a Second Advent missionary. The "Chapman" was bound for Pitcairn Island. She carried a crew of six men. All are now given up for lost, and at the General Conference of the Advent society resolutions of condolence with Elder Cudney's wife and children were passed. Another missionary schooner was sent to the South Seas some months ago, and reports that there is no longer any doubt of Cudney's fate.
