

1 PRE/10AC/PRE/ADCOM/22AC to MRV

2
3 138-22G GOD’S PROMISED GIFT: AN URGENT APPEAL FOR
4 REVIVAL, REFORMATION, DISCIPLESHIP, AND
5 EVANGELISM
6

7 The following is a slightly updated version (August 2022 by Mark A Finley) of the 8 document, “God’s Promised Gift: An Urgent Appeal for Revival, Reformation, Discipleship, and 9 Evangelism,” voted by Annual Council on October 11, 2010.

10
11 VOTED, To reaffirm the document “God’s Promised Gift: An Urgent Appeal for 12 Revival, Reformation, Discipleship, and Evangelism,” which reads as follows:
13

14 GOD’S PROMISED GIFT: AN URGENT APPEAL
15 FOR REVIVAL, REFORMATION, DISCIPLESHIP, AND EVANGELISM
16

17 God has uniquely called the Seventh-day Adventist Church both to live and proclaim His 18 last-day message of love and truth to the world (Revelation 14:6-12). The challenge of reaching 19 the nearly eight billion people on planet Earth with His end-time message seems impossible. The 20 task is overwhelming. From a human perspective, the rapid fulfillment of Christ’s Great 21 Commission anytime soon appears unlikely (Matthew 28:19, 20).
22

23 The Church’s growth rate is simply not keeping pace with the world’s burgeoning
24 population. An honest evaluation of our current evangelistic impact on the world leads to the 25 conclusion that unless there is a dramatic change, we will not complete Heaven’s assignment in 26 this generation. Despite our best efforts, on our own, all our plans, strategies, and resources are 27 incapable of finishing God’s mission.
28

29 Christ’s Promise to His New Testament Church
30

31 The challenge of taking the gospel to the world is not new. The disciples faced this 32 challenge in the first century. We face it in the twenty-first century. The New Testament church
33 was seemingly confronted with an impossible task. But empowered by the Holy Spirit, the 34 church exploded in growth (Acts 2:41; 4:4; 6:7; 9:31). These early Christians shared their faith
35 everywhere (Acts 5:42).
36

37 The grace of God overflowed from their hearts to their families, friends, and work
38 associates. Just a few decades after the Crucifixion, the Apostle Paul could report that the gospel
39 is “preached to every creature under heaven” (Colossians 1:23, NKJV). How was it possible for 40 an obscure group of relatively insignificant believers to impact the world in such a short amount
41 of time? How could so few Christians be used of God to change the world forever?
42

43 Christ’s Great Commission was accompanied by His great promise. The Savior
44 commanded His disciples “not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the 45 Father” (Acts 1:4). The Savior promised, “But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has

138-22G GOD'S PROMISED GIFT: AN URGENT APPEAL FOR
REVIVAL, REFORMATION, DISCIPLESHIP, AND
EVANGELISM - 2

1 come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria,
2 and to the end of the earth” (Acts 1:8, NKJV).

3
4 The love of Christ controlled every aspect of the disciples’ lives and moved them to a
5 passionate commitment to His service (2 Corinthians 5:14). They sought God for the promised
6 power of the Holy Spirit and knelt before Him in heartfelt confession and earnest repentance.
7 They placed priority on seeking the fullness of Heaven’s blessing. They set aside times for 8 prayer and searching the Scriptures. Their petty differences were swallowed up in their all-
9 consuming desire to share Christ’s love with everyone they met. They were absorbed in reaching 10 the world with the gospel. Nothing was more important. They recognized that they were 11 powerless to accomplish the mission without the mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

12
13 Describing the experience of the disciples, Ellen G White wrote, “Putting away all
14 differences, all desire for the supremacy, they came close together in Christian fellowship. . .
15 Sadness filled their hearts as they thought of how many times they had grieved Him by their 16 slowness of comprehension, their failure to understand the lessons that, for their good, He was 17 trying to teach them. The disciples felt their spiritual need and cried to the Lord for the Holy 18 unction that was to fit them for the work of soul saving. They did not ask for a blessing for 19 themselves merely. They were weighted with the burden of the salvation of souls. They realized
20 that the gospel was to be carried to the world, and they claimed the power that Christ promised”
21 (AA 37).

22
23 Christ fulfilled His promise. The Holy Spirit was poured out in Pentecostal power.
24 Thousands were converted in a day. The message of Christ’s love impacted the world. In a short 25 time, the name of Jesus Christ was on the lips of men and women everywhere. “By the co-
26 operation of the divine Spirit, the apostles did a work that shook the world. To every nation was 27 the gospel carried in a single generation” (AA 593).

28
29 Christ’s Promise to His End-Time Church

30
31 The outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost in the early rain was only a prelude of 32 what is to come. God has promised to pour out His Holy Spirit in abundance in the last days
33 (Joel 2:23; Zechariah 10:1). The earth will be “illuminated with his glory” (Revelation 18:1, 34 NKJV). The work of God on earth will be finished rapidly (Matthew 24:14; Romans 9:28). The 35 Church will experience a spiritual revival and the fullness of the Holy Spirit’s power like never 36 before in its history. Speaking of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, Peter gives us 37 this assurance: “For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are afar off, as 38 many as the Lord our God will call” (Acts 2:39, NKJV). Ellen G White adds, “Before the final
39 visitation of God’s judgments upon the earth, there will be, among the people of the Lord, such a 40 revival of primitive godliness as has not been witnessed since apostolic times. The Spirit and 41 power of God will be poured out upon His children. At that time many will separate themselves

138-22G GOD'S PROMISED GIFT: AN URGENT APPEAL FOR
REVIVAL, REFORMATION, DISCIPLESHIP, AND
EVANGELISM - 3

1 from those churches in which the love of this world has supplanted love for God and His word.
2 Many, both of ministers and people, will gladly accept those great truths which God has caused
3 to be proclaimed at this time to prepare a people for the Lord's second coming" (GC 464).

4
5 Hundreds of thousands of people will accept God's last-day message through the 6 teaching and preaching of His Word. Prayer, Bible study, and witness are all elements of true
7 revival. The manifestation of the Holy Spirit will intensify as the end approaches. "Near the 8 close of earth's harvest, a special bestowal of spiritual grace is promised to prepare the church
9 for the coming of the Son of Man" (FLB 333). "By thousands of voices, all over the earth, the 10 warning will be given. Miracles will be wrought, the sick will be healed, and signs and wonders
11 will follow the believers" (GC 612).

12
13 There is nothing more important than knowing Jesus, studying His Word, understanding
14 His truth, and seeking His promise for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in latter-rain power for 15 the fulfilling of the gospel commission. God's last-day prophet to the remnant wrote in words too
16 plain to be misunderstood, "A revival of true godliness among us is the greatest and most urgent 17 of all our needs. To seek this should be our first work" (ISM 121).

18
19 If a genuine spiritual revival is the greatest and most urgent of all our needs, should we 20 not as leaders place priority on seeking Heaven's promised blessing with all our hearts?

21
22 When we seek Jesus, He fills us with His presence and power through the gift of the Holy 23 Spirit. We long to know Him better. The Holy Spirit reawakens the dormant spiritual faculties of 24 the soul. There is nothing we desire more than to have a deep and life-changing relationship with 25 Jesus. The revived heart experiences a vital connection to Jesus through prayer and the Word.
26 Reformation is the corresponding change that comes in our lives as the result of revival.

27
28 "A revival and a reformation must take place under the ministration of the Holy Spirit.
29 Revival and reformation are two different things. Revival signifies a renewal of spiritual life, a
30 quickening of the powers of mind and heart, a resurrection from spiritual death. Reformation
31 signifies a reorganization, a change in ideas and theories, habits and practices. Reformation will 32 not bring forth the good fruit of righteousness unless it is connected with the revival of the Spirit.
33 Revival and reformation are to do their appointed work, and in doing this work they must blend"
34 (ISM 128). Reformation does not manifest itself in a self-righteous attitude that condemns
35 others. It is the transformation of character that reveals the fruits of the Spirit in the life
36 (Galatians 5:22-24). Obedience to God's will is the evidence of all true revival. Our Lord longs
37 for a revived people whose lives reflect the loveliness of His character. There is nothing that 38 Jesus desires more than a people who are passionate about personally knowing His love and 39 sharing that love with others.

138-22G GOD’S PROMISED GIFT: AN URGENT APPEAL FOR
REVIVAL, REFORMATION, DISCIPLESHIP, AND
EVANGELISM - 4

1 Commitment and Appeal

2
3 As leaders of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, we give thanks to God for His
4 faithfulness and abundant blessings to His Church since its inception. The rapid worldwide
5 expansion of His Church in both its membership and institutions is nothing short of miraculous.
6 In recent years, we have seen the rapid growth of the Church in a number of countries. Although 7 we praise Him for marvelously working to fulfill His purposes through His Church and thank 8 Him for the godly leaders who have guided His people in the past, we humbly acknowledge that
9 because of our human frailties even our best efforts are tainted by sin and in need of cleansing
10 through the grace of Christ. We recognize that we have not always placed priority on seeking 11 God through prayer and His Word for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in latter-rain power. We 12 humbly confess that in our personal lives, our administrative practices, and committee meetings
13 we too often have labored in our own strength. Too often God’s mission of saving a lost world
14 has not taken first place in our hearts. At times in our busyness doing good things, we have 15 neglected the most important thing—knowing Him and sharing His end-time message of eternal 16 truth with others. Too often petty jealousies, ambitions, and fractured personal relationships have 17 crowded out our longing for revival and reformation and caused us to labor in our human 18 strength rather than in His divine power.

19
20 We accept the clear instruction of our Lord that “the lapse of time has wrought no change
21 in Christ’s parting promise to send the Holy Spirit as His representative. It is not because of any 22 restriction on the part of God that the riches of His grace do not flow earthward to men. If the 23 fulfillment of the promise is not seen as it might be, it is because the promise is not appreciated
24 as it should be. If all were willing, all would be filled with the Spirit” (AA 50).

25
26 We are confident that all heaven is waiting to pour out the Holy Spirit in infinite power
27 for the finishing of God’s work on earth. We acknowledge that the coming of Jesus has been 28 delayed and that our Lord longed to come decades ago. We sense Christ calling us to a deeper
29 relationship with Him in prayer and Bible study and a more passionate commitment to share His 30 last-day message with the world. We rejoice that “it is the privilege of every Christian, not only 31 to look for, but to hasten the coming of the Saviour” (AA 600).

32
33 Therefore, as representatives of the world Church and on behalf of our entire 34 membership, we commit ourselves:

35
36 1. To personally place priority on seeking God for spiritual revival and the 37 outpouring of the Holy Spirit in latter-rain power in our own lives, families, and ministries.

38
39 2. To individually set aside significant amounts of time daily to fellowship with 40 Christ through prayer and the study of God’s Word.

138-22G GOD’S PROMISED GIFT: AN URGENT APPEAL FOR
REVIVAL, REFORMATION, DISCIPLESHIP, AND
EVANGELISM - 5

1           3.       We desire willing hearts so that nothing in our lives hinders the fullness of the 2 Holy Spirit’s power.

3

4           4.       To encourage the ministries of the Church to spend time praying, studying God’s 5 Word, and seeking God’s heart to understand His plans for His Church.

6

7           5.       To encourage each Seventh-day Adventist organization to set aside time for 8 administrators, pastors, healthcare workers, publishing house workers, educators, students, and 9 all employees to seek Jesus and the promised outpouring of the Holy Spirit together through a
10 study of God’s Word and prayer.

11

12           6.       To use every available media outlet, conference, and workshop to appeal to 13 church members to seek a deeper relationship with Jesus for the promised revival and 14 reformation.

15

16           7.       To urgently appeal to and invite our entire church membership to join us in 17 opening our hearts to the life-changing power of the Holy Spirit, which will transform our lives,
18 our families, organizations, and communities.

19

20           8.       To earnestly appeal to each church member to use their God-given gifts of the 21 Spirit in Total Member Involvement (TMI) to reach lost people. We recognize that the Holy 22 Spirit will not be poured out in its fullness on inactivity, so we encourage every member to 23 become actively involved in service for the Master.

24

25           We especially recognize that God is going to use children and youth in this last mighty
26 revival and encourage each one of our young people to participate in seeking God for spiritual 27 revival in their own lives and the empowerment of the Holy Spirit to share their faith with others.

28

29           We appeal to each church member to unite with church leaders and millions of other
30 Seventh-day Adventists seeking a deeper relationship with Jesus, the outpouring of the Holy 31 Spirit, and the completion of Christ’s mission on earth. This is an urgent call to circle the globe
32 with earnest intercession. This is a call to total commitment to Jesus and to experience the life-
33 changing power of the Holy Spirit that our Lord is longing to give now.

34

35           We believe that the purpose of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in latter-rain power is to 36 finish Christ’s mission on earth so He can come quickly. Recognizing that our Lord will only 37 pour out His Spirit in its fullness on a church that has a passion for lost people, we determine to 38 place and maintain revival, reformation, discipleship, and evangelism at the top of all our church
39 business agendas. More than anything else we long for Jesus to come.

40

138-22G GOD’S PROMISED GIFT: AN URGENT APPEAL FOR
REVIVAL, REFORMATION, DISCIPLESHIP, AND
EVANGELISM - 6

1           We urge every church administrator, departmental leader, institutional worker, health
2 worker, literature evangelist, chaplain, educator, pastor, and church member to join us in making
3 revival, reformation, discipleship, and evangelism the most important and urgent priorities of our
4 personal lives and our areas of ministry. We are confident that as we seek Him together, God
5 will pour out His Holy Spirit in abundant measure, the work of God on earth will be finished,
6 and Jesus will come. With the aged Apostle John on the Isle of Patmos we cry out, “Even so,
7 come, Lord Jesus” (Revelation 22:20, NKJV).