1. Trust and Invest in younger generation

Testimonies for the Church vol.9, pp 118.119

“Young men and women should be educated to become workers in their own neighborhoods and in other places. Let all set their hearts and minds to become intelligent in regard to the work for this time, qualifying themselves to do that for which they are best adapted.”

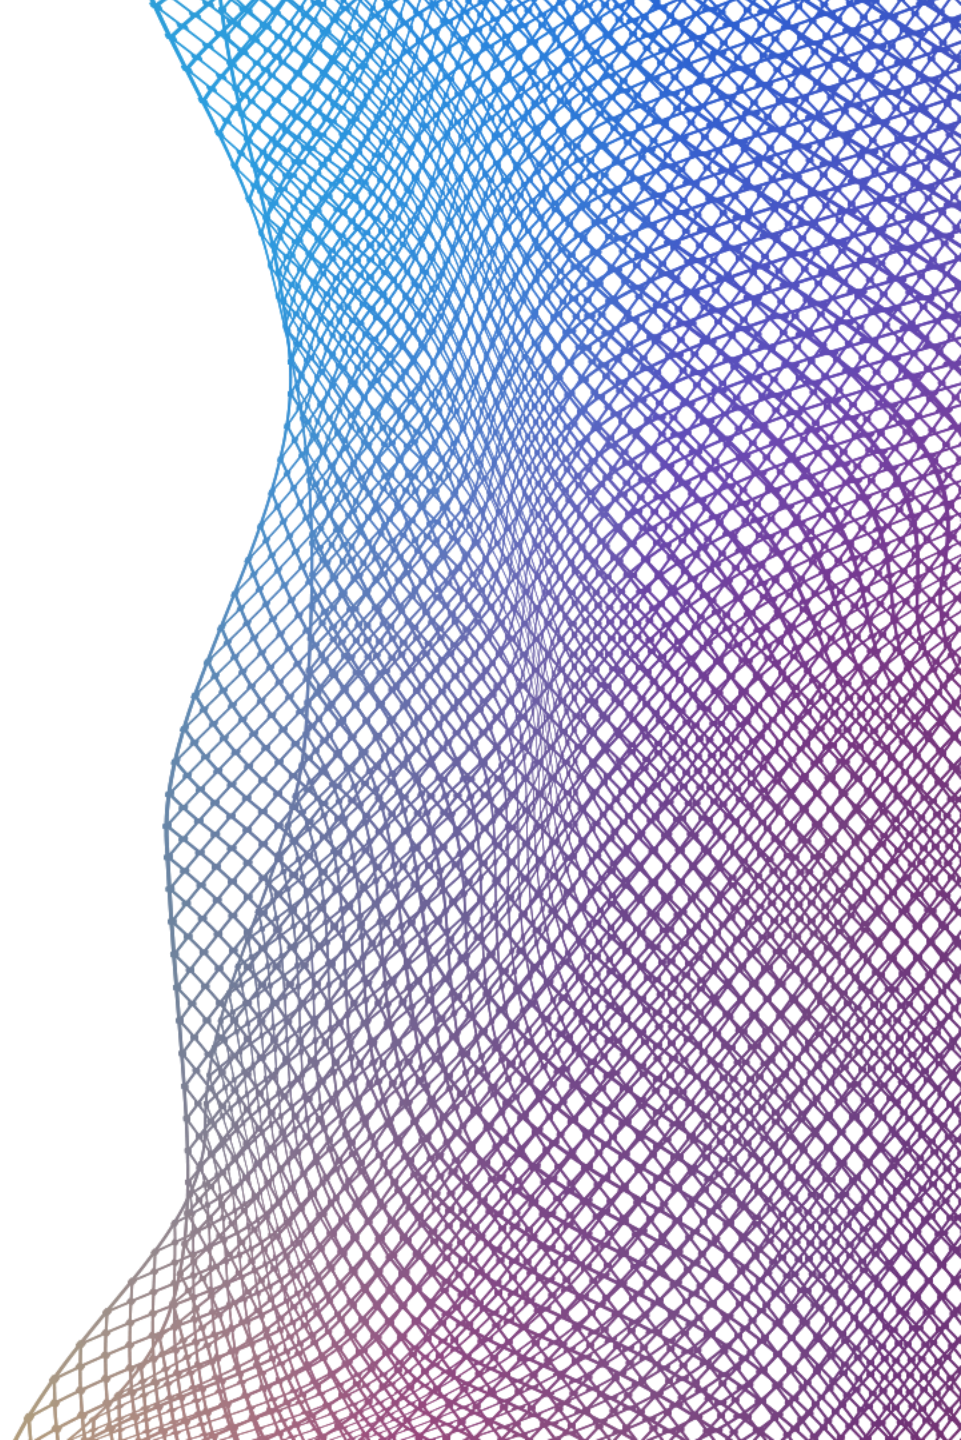

Testimonies for the Church vol.9, pp 118.119

“Many young men who have had the right kind of education at home are to be trained for service and encouraged to lift the standard of truth in new places by well-planned and faithful work. By associating with our ministers and experienced workers in city work, they will gain the best kind of training.”

“Acting under divine guidance and sustained by the prayers of their more experienced fellow workers, they may do a good and blessed work. As they unite their labors with those of the older workers, using their youthful energies to the very best account, they will have companionship of heavenly angels; and as workers together with God, it is their privilege to sing and pray and believe, and work with courage and freedom.”

Of course, that what is an is easily disregarded and trodden easily forgotten that the fellowship of brethren is a gift of grace, a gift of om of God that any day may be n us... Therefore, let him who until had the privilege of living a common life with other Christians praise ce from the bottom of his heart. Let God on his knees and declare: It is thing but grace, that we are allowed
