Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land that the LORD your God is giving you. Exodus 20:12.

This is the first commandment with promise. It is binding upon childhood and youth, upon the middle-aged and the aged. There is no period in life when children are excused from honoring their parents.

This solemn obligation is binding upon every son and daughter and is one of the conditions to their prolonging their lives upon the land which the Lord will give the faithful...Parents are entitled to a degree of love and respect which is due to no other person...

God cannot prosper those who go directly contrary to the plainest duty specified in His word, the duty of children to their parents. If they disrespect their earthly parents, they will not respect and love their Creator. HB Page 290

The principle that man can save himself by his own works lay at the foundation of every heathen religion...Satan had implanted this principle. Wherever it is held, men have no barrier against sin.

He who is trying to reach heaven by his own works in keeping the law, is attempting an impossibility. Man cannot be saved without obedience, but his works should not be of himself; Christ should work in him to will and to do of his good pleasure...

1 Selected Messages 364.1

For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast.

Ephesians 2: 8,9

By His perfect obedience He has made it possible for every human being to obey God's commandments. When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind becomes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life.
